Explanation: To support delivery of our programs and strategies to help

Colorado's women and girls achieve economic self-sufficiency.

Part X, Line 2:

Explanation: The Foundation is required to determine whether a tax position (and the related tax benefit) is more likely than not to be sustained upon examination by the applicable taxing authority, based solely on the technical merits of the position. The Foundation believes it has appropriate support for any tax positions taken, and as such, does not have any uncertain tax positions that are significant to the financial statements. If incurred, interest and penalties associated with uncertain

Part I, Line 2:

Explanation: The Foundation requests an application and final report for each project funded. In addition, the Foundation performs a site visit, makes periodic calls and engages in e-mail correspondence regarding updates to ensure grant funds are used properly. By requiring rigorous reporting and making a personal connection with each grantee, the Foundation ensures funds are being used for proper purposes. The Foundation uses a modified version of the Colorado Common Grant Application and Report that closely aligns with our strategic funding areas and allows The Foundation to gather specific and timely information on programs and organizations.

The Dottie Lamm Leadership Awardees are selected from the current class of Girls' Leadership Council (GLC) participants. Participants can opt into the selection process by preparing and submitting a written essay prior to the start of and participation in Girls' Leadership Council Program. The essays are reviewed and ranked by two staff with the two highest ranking applicants receiving the award. The S.T.E.M. Scholarship Award recipients also can opt into the selection process by submitting a written essay during the GLC week following the S.T.E.M. program module. These essays are first reviewed by two Foundation staff and then given to a representative of Lockheed Martin. This representative has final decision making authority regarding the final two recipients.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, line 11:

Explanation: The Women's Foundation of Colorado places initial responsibility for oversight and review of the Form 990 with the Audit and Finance Committee as designated in the Audit and Finance Committee Charter. The Form 990 is then distributed to the full Board for review in advance of its regularly scheduled Board meeting. Prior to, and at the Board meeting, the Trustees are provided an opportunity to ask any questions regarding the Form 990 and the financial statements.

Form 990, Part VI, Section B, Line 12c:

Explanation: The Women's Foundation of Colorado distributes its Conflict of Interest Policy to all employees and Board members. Each Board member and employee is also provided a Conflict of Interest Statement, which affords the individual an opportunity to disclose any relationships, positions or circumstances which could potentially constitute a conflict of interest as defined in the Foundation's Conflict of Interest Policy. For each employee
